

A C A D E M Y,

At the Rev'd. Mr. R. Britton's Meeting, Hope-street, Spitalfields.

MR. BRITTON returns his sincere Thanks to his Friends and the Public for the great Encouragement he has received from them, and desires to inform them that he still continues to teach both Sexes, READING, WRITING, and every Branch of ARITHMETIC; BOOK-KEEPING by Single and Double Entry. Mr. BRITTON desires to inform his Friends and the Public that the Assertion of other School-Masters that Mr. BRITTON was going to leave off keeping School is without the least Foundation, and only done with an intent to injure Mr. BRITTON: they have gone with that daring Falsity to the Parents and Guardians of most of Mr. BRITTON's Pupils, thinking thereby to injure Mr. BRITTON. Mr. BRITTON has a very mean Apprehension of such School-Masters as are going from House to House a begging Children. Let every Man's Industry recommend him. Those Parents and Guardians that please to favor Mr. BRITTON with their Children, may depend on the greatest Care being taken both of their Morals and Learning. Mr. BRITTON has proper Assistants with him, and either Mr. BRITTON or his Assistants hear the Readers themselves, so as to give Satisfaction to the most scrupulous of Parents. N. B.
